

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM - Thursday September 10th, 2026
08.15-09.00	Registration
09.00-09.15	Welcome
Chairs: TBA
09.15-10.00	Controversies in Resuscitation Strategies for defibrillation - Bertram Lahn Kirkegaard, Denmark Sedation and analgesia during CPR - Anna Lybeck, Sweden Intra-arrest cooling - Per Norberg, Sweden
10.00-10.30	Coffe break & exhibition
Chairs: TBA
10.30-11.00	Pro Con: Should we search for and actively treat seizures in the ICU?  Continuous EEG-monitoring should be used in all patients! - Erik Westhall, Sweden Routine-EEG is of similar value and is more cost-effective! - Andrea Rossetti, Switzerland
Chairs: TBA
11.00-12.00	4 prize-winning abstracts (4x 10+5 min)
12.00-13.00	Lunch break with posters & exhibition
Chairs: TBA
13.00-14.30	Neuroprognostication Earlier neuroprognostication- what's the available evidence? - Markus Skrifvars, Finland How should we handle the patient with indeterminate outcome? - Janneke Horn, The Netherlands Withdrawl of care and the self-fulfilling prophecy - Jonathan Elmer, US Panel discussion
14.30-15.00	Coffe break & exhibition
Chairs: TBA
15.00-16.15	Organ donation after cardiac arrest  Controlled DCD after a cardiac arrest - a user's guide - Ian Thomas, UK Uncontrolled DCD - Pia Löwhagen, Sweden Ethical implications - Marion Moseby Knappe, Sweden Panel/discussion including patient representative Gunilla Velin, Sweden
18.30	Conference Mingle with refreshments

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM - Friday September 11th, 2026
08.30-09.00	Registration
09.00-09.15	Welcome
Chairs: TBA
09.15-10.30	Early perspectives Why is the brain in focus after Cardiac arrest? - Jonathan Elmer, US Delirium management in the ICU - Marie Oxenbøll Collet, Denmark  Outcome and follow up- What's important? The survivor perspective - Paul Swindell, UK The relative perspective - Katie Dainty, Canada
10.30-11.00	Coffe break & exhibition
Chairs: TBA
11.00-12.00	Aspects of recovery Assessing and understanding cognitive recovery - Pauline van Gils, The Netherlands Psychological distress after cardiac arrest - Josefin Särnholm, Sweden Return to work after cardiac arrest - Gisela Lilja, Sweden
12.00-13.00	Lunch break with posters & exhibition
Chairs: TBA
13.00-14.00	4 prize-winning abstracts (4x 10+5 min)
14.00-14.45	Cognitive problems - and now what? The Copenhagen framework - Mette Wagner, Denmark Cognitive/neurorehabilitation - Marika Möller, Sweden
14.45-15.15	Coffe break & exhibition
Chairs: TBA
15.15-15.55	Interactive session Holistic perspectives on cardiac arrest rehabilitation - Panel discussion
15.55-16.00	Summary